HEAR HEFLIN

At Louisa on Next Monday
Oct. 16th.

One of the Brightest and Most Entertaining Speakers of the Entire Country.

If the people of this section know what is in store for them the Lawrence county court house would not hold one tenth of the crowd which would flock to hear Representative Heflin, of Alabama, who will speak in this city next Monday afternoon, October 16th. He comes to speak in the interest of Democracy, especially in behalf of the Democratic State Ticket, but citizens of all shades of political opinion are cordially invited to be present. Mr. Heflin is one of the foremost orators of the South, that land of eloquent public men, and as a member of Congress he used his splendid gifts of oratory and statesmanship most effectively. In his campaign speeches Mr. Heflin, of course, discusses the issues of the day, and he does this in the most logical and convincing way, but he has the flowers of rhetoric and the merry jest at his command enabling him to address himself to and to please all sorts and conditions of hearers.

From numerous notices of Mr. Heflin's tour in Kentucky the News takes the following:

Marion, Ky., Oct. 9.—The large crowd of enthusiastic people gathered for the trial of the famous opera house.

Cherokee, Ky., Oct. 10.—The large crowd of enthusiastic people gathered for the trial of the famous opera house.

Keep the day and date of Mr. Heflin's coming well in mind and put aside all other matters and come and enjoy such a speech as is not heard everyday.

CONDITION SERIOUS.

William Fulkerson, whose serious condition was chronicled in the News last week, is now receiving treatment at Riverview hospital in this city. He was brought here Tuesday night so that he could be more easily reached by his mother. Since his arrival here there has been but little if any change for the better. The accident produced a fracture at the base of the skull, and the brain is consequently somewhat affected. It is noticed occasionally that there is some mental disturbance, not very pronounced. He is receiving the best care and attention possible.

MISSION MEETINGS.

Mrs. L. T. McClure and some other ladies have secured the use of the moving picture building for the purpose of holding Sunday afternoon meetings therein. The service consists of singing, reading the scriptures and prayer, with short talks on religious subjects. The meetings are specially designed for those who do not attend church, but all are cordially invited. The first meeting was held last Sunday and was well attended.

DANIELS CASE DISMISSED.

One important action of the recent term of the Mingo Criminal Court was the dismissal of the murder charge against Charles Daniels, whose wife and daughter were killed in the raid on his home opposite Devou. Daniels was tried at the last term and the jury failed to agree, eleven being for acquittal. Daniels had killed one of his assailants after they had, in their attempt to capture him, shot and killed his daughter and her mother.

ENTERTAINMENT.

Our people will be glad to learn that another Caudill Wednesday course has been arranged for as church at Hurricane and will be presented 8th. coming season. It will be a five numbers of variety. all first class. The 1. Nancy Maynard called to son tickets will be $1.00 on Burgett Run last night and Sunday. Mrs. Easter Lowe is very sick at this writing. Mary Alley and sister, Flora called to see Cosbie and Ealon Alley last Sunday. Fred and Landon Maynard, of Brushy, visited friends at this place a few days ago. Mr. and Mrs. John Alley attended church on Wolf Creek Saturday and Sunday. Hayse Lowe and family have returned from Williamson, where they have been visiting relatives. Cosbie Alley called on Miss Atkinson last Sunday. The first attraction will be Thu Margurita Smith Company, which will appear November 10, of which a more extended notice will appear later. Mrs. Atkinson deserves the thanks of our people for, at no small risk, furnishing this course, and her proposition to give us entertainment and pleasure at so small cost should meet with a liberal response.

MASONIC GRAND BODIES.

The Grand Lodge and Grand Chapter will meet in annual session in Louisville next week, beginning Tuesday. The Grand Lodge holds its meetings during the day, while the Chapter convenes at night. A. J. Garred is Master of the lodge at this place and A. M. Hughes is High Priest of the Chapter and are ex-officio delegates to the grand bodies, and they will probably attend.

CHARGE AGAINST O'REAR

Made by McCreary Creates Another Sensation.

Wickliffe, Ky., Oct. 7.—The first real sensation of the campaign between former Senator James B. McCreary and Judge Edward C. O'Rear for the governorship of Kentucky was sprung here today by Senator McCreary when he charged his Republican opponent with having participated in a meeting at the Galt House in Louisville in January, 1900, with W. S. Taylor, and others, and that Judge O'Rear made a speech in that meeting in which he advocated the use of armed men and violence to keep Taylor in office. Senator McCreary said that he had been trying to secure this evidence for the past month, but that it was not until Friday, in Louisville, that he secured the word of a man who was in that conference and who heard all that was said by Taylor, Judge O'Rear and others, with reference to the course to be pursued by Taylor and his associates to retain the office to which they claimed to have been elected.

Not only did Senator McCreary charge Judge O'Rear with having made a speech in that conference in which he advocated violence, but he called on him to tell the people of Kentucky why he banded with Taylor, and dared him to tell what he had said in that speech of eleven years ago. He said it was shortly after this advice had been given to Taylor to Judge O'Rear that the regiment of armed soldiers from the mountains of Kentucky marched on Frankfort and remained there until William Goebel. Senator McCreary said the conduct of his Republican opponent in that memorable meeting was of such a nature that he did not care to comment on it to any great length, unless it should be done, when he would be ready to furnish the names of two prominent men of Kentucky, who were in the conference, to prove his assertion. He said, however, that he believed the people of Kentucky would give the matter much thought between now and the November election and would show by their votes that they did not countenance such action on the part of a man seeking the highest office within the gift of the people of the State.

No one in the vast crowd which heard Senator McCreary today had any idea that he was going to make such a sensational charge against his opponent, and when he began to discuss the meeting, which had been kept secret for eleven years, his listeners began to sit up and take notice, and when he charged Judge O'Rear with being one of the prime movers in the conference

Development of This Territory Getting a Nice Start and the Prospects Look Very Flattering.

There is considerable activity in the local oil field. Eight new wells are to be drilled as soon as arrangements can be completed. The machinery for three is on the ground. These locations are the F. W. Meek place, Doc Carter's farm, and John Prince's tract. The companies doing the developing are the Hays Oil Company, the Wayne Oil Co., and A. C. Smith. The other wells already planned for, and some of them contracted, are the Squire Deal Co., the Cochran Oil Co., the Reuben Fork Co., the Hood Oil Co., and a Huntington company organized by Chris Lawrence to develop some of the Busseyville company's acreage near the O'Neal well. Work is to start on the latter property within ten days.

The Ohio Fuel Company has bought 1500 acres of leases in the Blackburn neighborhood about seven miles southwest of Louisa. The tank at the O'Neal well is full of oil. The Busseyville company is said to be making arrangements to have several more wells drilled on their property as soon as possible.

STREET IMPROVEMENT.

Elsewhere in this issue is an item in which the condition of the street crossing from the Atkins property and the adjacent sidewalk was noticed. The News hastens to notice the fact that the work of putting in a concrete crossing and a concrete pavement at those points and a concrete crossing from Davis to the Picklesburg corner has begun.

IMPROVING RESIDENCE.

Lock Moore is improving his Lock avenue residence. Another story has been added to the L and a new metal roof has been put on the entire building.

ARDENT MCCREARY MAN.

F. S. Hatcher, of Pikeville Has Special Reasons for Being so.

F. S. Hatcher, who has been an active fighter in the cause of Democracy for forty seven years makes a most pathetic figure these days. He is suffering from paralysis and Bright's disease. He has his front porch decorated with a fine picture of Hon. J. B. McCreary, whom he remembers as having come to the home to his mother at the month of April forty six years ago last April, sockless and hatless. He was on his way to Louisa to surrender. He was given his breakfast by Mrs. Hatcher, also a pair of gray home knit yarn socks, went out to Prestonsburg and was presented with a cap by the late Hon. Green Whitten. Mr. McCreary then a captain in the Confederate ranks, wore a gray suit. He attracted the admiration and sympathy of all the southern sympathizers with whom he came in contact. Mrs. Hatcher mother of the late Andrew Hatcher and grandmother of James and Richard Hatcher of this place. Mr. Hatcher's first campaigning was for the eminent John D. Young for Congress in 1865. He is now interested in the election most of Hon. James B. McCreary for Governor and "Bob" Groen for Clerk of the Court of Appeals and says he expects to go to the polls to assist in electing these two and desires that we mention these facts in the independent. — Pikeville cor. Louisa is glad to honor the man who, reared in or near her limits, have done well in the professions thus briefly mentioned, and the old "Town at The Forks" is proud that one of them has become an author and has given to the literary world a book which has been deemed worthy of the praise of some of the brightest minds in America. To a man of Mr. Shaunou's erudition, thoughtful mind and scholarly tastes it seems easy and natural that he should slip into authorship, and that his first essay into the enticing field should be a book of sermons. Why it should be so needs no explanation. The book, the child of his experience as a preacher and of his active, fertile brain, is born, und, better still, it will live. It is not the province of a secular newspaper to "review" a book of sermons, and if it were there are conditions which say that the News is hardly a proper "reviewer." The partiality of the editorial staff for the brilliant author of The Soul's Athos might, in the minds of some, lead it to say things unmerited by the book, therefore the News prefers to publish what the foremost preacher in a city of preachers has to say of this first book of its friend and former co-laborer.

Grade I, Nellie Chandler and Lamm Chandler.

Grade II, Girard Skuggs and Ekal Hannah.

Grade III, Mildred Chandler and Charley Chandler.

Grade IV, Verne Allen and Grace Castle.

Grade V, Willie Thompson. Pupils are interested.

"My most difficult problem is 'How to secure perfect attendance.' (Aye, there's the rub with all of us.—Ed)

The work in the Public Schools will be much better in this section this year than any former year. My attendance will be better during the remaining part of the term.

J. N. Compton, teacher, Seedtick school, Division 8, District 14, all pupils, but 3, in the district enrolled. Result of the examination.

Josie Chambers 84, Bert Fannin 81 1-4, Rob Enyart 77 1-8, Lizzie White 80 1-4, Richard Workmsa 76 1-8, Charlie Fannin 75.

"Pupils are working hard for the next examination, each one trying to get the highest general average."

Carson Elswick, teacher, Potter, Division 8, District 4:

Grade VII, Ethel Layne 91; grade VI, Ollie Burk 81; grade V, Jos Fugett 82; grade III, Jay Moore 83; grade II, James Fugett 77; grade I, Clara Layne 80.

Nancy O'Daniel, teacher, Long Branch school, Division 8, District 9, average attendance first month 25. There are 42 pupils in the district and 32 have been enrolled in the school. Grades in examination:

Grade VII, Goldie Barrett 87, Arizona O'Daniel 87, Samuel Morro 92. Grade V, Eloise Barrett 80, Allen Lambert 78.

Grade VI, Rosa Layne 93 6-10, Clarence O'Daniel 92.

John Collinsworth, teacher, Clifford writes, "My school is progressing nicely. The attendance is good. My average for the first month was 55; for the second 45. I have enrolled 68. There are 82 in the district.

The second month ended with an examination. Most all of the pupils made fair grades. I am following the Course of Study as best I can for the first year. I find it a great help in many respects.

The American Book Co., Cincinnati, O., has also sets of library books for the public school. These books are arranged to cover the eight grades in our schools. The list price of each set is $6.00, but you can get each set for $4.80, but will have to pay express charges. Write the American Book Co. for "The One-Book Shelf Children Libraries." A postal card sent will bring the folder giving the names of all the books in the sets. They are good books. If you prefer I can call from the general catalogue a list of good books and publish the titles with prices next week.

Webster's Academic Dictionary can be purchased from the American Book for $1.50; with index $1.80. I believe Mr. M. P. Conley, of Louisa, keeps these in stock and I know he will be glad to sell to you at same price.

If teachers will write Mr. R. S. Eubank, Lexington, Ky., and state they wish to purchase books for a library he will help in securing good books.

Address a card to "Library Committee," Frankfort, Ky., asking for information on "50 Book Library." I believe you can secure these 50 books for $2.00, but they are not to become your property. You keep them and read them as long as you wish. The $2.00 is to pay for transportation on books coming to you and then the return charges.

The postal card will bring the information you need about the books. State you are a teacher.

When writing them state that J. B. McClure, Louisa, Ky., request-

Saturday, October 14th, ere pay day and Prof. be here and deliver at the Court House at 1 o'clock that day. Would of the teachers as possible be here, not only to hear dress, but that may get the payment made correctly, there lug so many orders for books, literature etc., that it is a difficult matter to make the first payment without mistakes unless the teachers are present. After the first payment I can send your check to you, if you so desire. So all that day and bring your trustees and as many of your patrons with you as possible and let's wlad up Prof. Coates' week in our county with a big educational rally of the county seat.

The County Board of Education will meet at my office Monday, October 16, at 9 o'clock a. m.

This is an important meeting as the greater part of the incidental claims will be considered at this meeting. I have notified Mr. White, President of the W. Va. School Furniture Co., to be present and I would like for every member of the Board to be present and bring a complete report from your respective Divisions, as we will settle for all furniture purchased from this company at this meeting.

Teachers entitled to free libraries in the Ten schools under Prof. Coates' supervision should call for them immediately. You are required to sign a receipt for same, which must be returned to the State Library Commission when school closes.

Let every teacher in Divisions 2 and 3 report to the School Department Editor, Prof. J. B. McClure, the name and general average of the boy and girl in each of Prof. T. J. Coates was present and captured the audience with his interesting, entertaining and sensible talks. He is the right man in the right place and his campaign in this county will be a "lasting good" to the cause of education.

The good people of Gallip fully sustained their reputation as charming and hospitable entertainers. The dinner served in the hall by those noble people would have done credit to any neighborhood in our country. The quality, quantity and variety were all that the most exacting epicurean could have asked.

Before adjourning the association, by a rising vote, extended thanks to the good citizens of Gallip for their courtesy, kindness and hospitality.

James O. Oscar W. Underwood of Congressional Ways and Means Committee, declared in an interview at Lexington that he looks for a Democratic victory in 1912.

From Paris comes as the newest thing in woman's fashions the aero-plane sleeve, the umbrelle of which extends from the shoulder to the waist.

Seems to us that some women
are "up in the air" often enough
without the aid of the biplane sleeve.

No man can successfully play a double game all the way through a long campaign. Mr. O'Rear's efforts to get the support of both wets and dry, outlaws and law-abiding citizens, sinners and saints, have already failed. The people want a sincere man in the Governor's office. McCreary has never been a double-dealer.

Dr. J. H. Wade, of Ashland, candidate for the Legislature from Boyd and Lawrence practiced medicine in his early life at Buehnan,

know anything favorable about him
ask some of the older citizens of that neighborhood. If you would search for any unfavorable information don't ask them—or any other people who know him. His kindness to the poor is a characteristic that you will hear much about in Ashland. His integrity and moral character are above reproach.

CELEBRATED BIRTHDAY.

Paul Frasher celebrated his 16th birthday by hurling his young friends to his beautiful home.
There were about fifty present and all enjoyed a grand time and a big treat. There were not many invited whom did not attend. Although they all enjoyed a general treat they were nilled to the parlor by Paul where they played many games and enjoyed life fine. Each guest brought Paul a beautiful present, something that was useful and something that he will never forget.

Paul is the son of Mr. and Mrs.
U. G. Frasher. He is a bright boy and a pupil of Thos. R. Brown High School of Catlettsburg, he was only 16 on Oct. 3, and is among the best scholars in school.

The West Virginia Conference of

Fifth Annual Meeting in Charleston
last week. On Saturday considerable discussion was occasioned when Bishop Berry ruled against the admission of Rev. D. H. Reid, of Huntington, on the ground that he was not a member of any church. An appeal was taken from the Bishop's ruling but the conference sustained
the Bishop.

DOUBT CANNOT EXIST.

Investigation Will Only Strengthen
the Proof We Give in Louisa

How can doubt exist in the face such evidence? Read here the endorsement of a representative citizen of Louisa.

J. B. Peters, Lock St. Louisa, Ky., says: "I was in constant misery from kidney complaint.
If I sat down for five or ten minutes and then attempted to get up,
it seemed as if a heavy weight were tied to my back and at such times
sharp pains darted across my kidneys. When I stooped, rheumatic twinges came on, being particularly severe in my knees, hips and joints. The kidney secretions were sometimes profuse then again there was almost a complete retention.
I also noticed that the kidney secretions scolded in passage and contained sediment. When almost discouraged, I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills and the contents of three boxes made me feel like a different man. I will be glad to corroborate every word of this statement to anyone that calls op-
on me."

Mr. Peters gave the above account of his experience with Doan's Kidney Pills in January 1908 and when interviewed on June 21, 1909,
he said: "The public statement I gave in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills last year still holds good."

THE OLD RELIABLE WEBSTER.

As in nearly everything else, there is a fashion in dictionaries. Since the day of the first "Webster" many other kinds have come. Some have remained, the remainder have gone. Chief among the ones now in vogue is the reliable Webster's New International. It contains 2700 pages and nearly 400,000 words. It is an encyclopedia dictionary, a library of useful knowledge in one volume. It remains as always, the standard for spelling and pronunciation.

If you need batteries for telephone or gas engine use you will find fresh ones at the Soyder Hardware Company's.

and with having made a speech advocating violence and advising Taylor to pursue that course to retain the office of Governor alienated the courtroom. When the full import of the charge became clear to the big crowd one of the most remarkable demonstrations ever seen in the Ballard county courtroom occurred. Hundreds of voters, many of whom were old soldiers who had gone through the war with Senator McCreary, arose to their feet and shouted their disapproval of Judge O'Rear's action and praised Senator McCreary for his exposure of the tactics of the Republican candidate for Governor.

In making the direct charge that Judge O'Rear had attended the Galt House conference and made a speech advocating violence, Senator McCreary said: "The blackest and bloodiest chapter in the history of Kentucky was when Taylor assumed to act as Governor and had cannon and galling guns and soldiers in the Statehouse yard, and bayonets were held to be superior to the law and soldiers superior to legislators and Judges of the Court of Appeals, and legislators were compelled to pass between soldiers before they could get to their respective chambers where they discharged their duties, and these terrible conditions finally culminated in the assassination of William Goebel, Governor-elect of Kentucky, and no Republican tried to arrest the assassins, and when they were arrested by peace officers aided by Democrats, and tried and convicted, they were pardoned by a Republican Governor. I regret to have been informed by reliable authority that my Republican opponent, Judge O'Rear, was at the consultation held at the Galt House in Louisville when Taylor consulted with leading supporters of his as to what he should do, and that Judge O'Rear, who was one of Taylor's advisers, made a speech at the consultation in the Galt House at the meeting, held early in 1900, and advocated the using of armed men and violence to keep Taylor in office. Goebel was simply exercising a constitutional right in making the contest for Governor."

"Judge O'Rear has said in one of his speeches that he has been Judge of the Court of Appeals eleven years and at the time he was in consultation with Taylor he was either a Judge of the Court of Appeals or was about to be inducted into office. That conduct of my opponent at this memorable conference of the Galt House was of such a nature that I will not comment on it further. I demand of this candidate for Governor to tell the people of Kentucky his reasons for banding with Taylor at that consultation, and I dare him to tell the people what he said. It is proper for me to say that two gentlemen of prominence and of the highest veracity were present at the Galt House meeting, and heard his speech, and I know what they will say about Judge O'Rear's speech."

REV. F. F. SHANNON.

The following editorial from the Brooklyn Eagle tells of an important change to be made soon
by Rev. F. F. Shannon. It is reported that he has a call from one of the largest churches in Brooklyn.

Rev. Frederick F. Shannon, for several years has been appointed to the charge of Grace Methodist Episcopal Church, on Seventh avenue and St. John's place. He is a sound preacher, an attractive orator, a diligent student and a wise and sympathetic pastor.

Nevertheless, he is under the itinerating system of Methodism. He thus is liable to be shifted at the close of any year of service to some other parish. If the Bishop presiding over the annual conference should turn down the desire of the parish to retain Mr. Shannon and designate him to some other place or duty.

Itinerary is agreeable to some preachers and not congenial to the comfort or usefulness of others.
The liability of itineracy to the latter is as unsatisfying as the fact of it. Such men become lost to Methodism, not are gained by denominations of equal orthodoxy.

Mr. Shannon, at the orderly time and in the orderly way, will ask the conference to which he belongs to release him from Methodism and to commend him to some other evangelical body of the Christian Church.
Regret will be mingled with the complacency with his wishes. He may not remain in any church to which he is called longer than he has with the one he now serves.
But that will depend on him and on his new charge, and will not be subject to the liability of an annual itineracy. His temperament and experience account for his desire.

He prefers a permanent post to a terminable one, and an optional tenure to one that can arbitrarily be ended or shifted. This involves no reflection on the Methodist system or on him. It only signifies a desire to adjust his condition to his aptitudes.

We trust he will find himself adjustable to the conditions he prefers. We think he will, though, frankly, we recall others of his once Methodist brethren who did not. The test, of course, must be left to time and to the conditions which time alone can reveal and settle. Meanwhile, any orthodox Chorist not of Methodism that next spring, or sooner, may wish a good preacher and a good man to be its pastor will do well to consider
Mr. Shannon, to whom the Sermon Page of any Monday Eagle will always be open and on which he is always welcome. Happily, the educational tests of ministers in Methodism are now equal to those of other orthodox denominations,

and the oratorical tests are likely to be as effective as those of any other eleven-hour workers in the vineyard of the Lord.—Brooklyn

THE EIGHTH DAY'S BIBLE STUDIES

KING CYRUS GOD'S SHEPHERD

Extra 1, 1-11; 11, 64-70—Oct. 15

"He retained not His anger forever, because He delighteth in mercy."—Micah vi, 18

THE heathen gods are all vengeful. The God of the Bible alone lays claim to being a God of love, "whose mercy endureth forever," as one of the Psalms repeats again and again. Alas! how terribly our God of Wisdom, Justice, Love and Power has been misrepresented to the world, and to the Church, as a God delighting in the eternal torture of the vast majority of His creatures; for if such were His provision for them, and He knew the end from the beginning, it would surely prove that He delighted in and intended their torture. But when our eyes open to a proper interpretation of God's Word, how His character becomes glorious before our eyes and commands our love and our devotion!

Today's study relates to the release of the Israelites from their Babylonian captivity, and their return to Palestine. This return was in exact fulfillment of the Lord's Word at the mouth of Jeremiah, the Prophet, who specifically foretold the destruction of the city, and also that it would be seventy years before the return of its inhabitants—Jeremiah xxv, 12; xxxix, 10; compare II Chronicles xxxvi, 22, 23.

We suggest a careful reading of the Scriptures above cited, to establish the fact that the seventy years predicted related to the desolation of the city of Jerusalem and of their land and not merely to the captivity of the people, some of whom went into captivity twenty years before the city was destroyed. Many, in applying this, have started the seventy years from the beginning of the first captivity, and thus are twenty years out of the way.

One of the most wonderful things connected with the story of Israel's release from Babylonian captivity is that Cyrus was named by the Prophet Isaiah in advance, and called "God's Shepherd"—Cyrus is My Shepherd, and shall perform all My pleasure, even saying to Jerusalem, "Thou shalt be built; and to the temple, thy foundation shall be laid" (Isaiah xlv, 23). Profane history gives Cyrus a very honorable name, calling him "gracious, element and just, treating men as men, and not as mere tools to be used and cast aside—a conqueror of quite a different type from any the world had previously seen."

King Cyrus' New Method
Nebuchadnezzar's theory of government was to bring representatives of the peoples of all lands to Babylon and there make them homogeneous, choosing the best of every nationality. But when Cyrus came upon the scene, as the conqueror of the Babylonian empire, Darius, the Mede, being under him, he found that the theory of his predecessor had not worked out satisfactorily. The mixed people of Chaldean were not patriotic. Cyrus adopted the opposite plan for governing the world. He not only gave liberty to the Jews to return to their own land, and gave them assistance back, but he did the same for the people of other nations, exiled in Babylon.

A brief epitome of the giving of his proclamation of liberty to the Jews is, "Thus saith Cyrus, King of Persia: All the kingdoms of earth hath Jehovah, the God of heaven, given unto me; and He has charged me to build Him a house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Whosoever there is among you of all his people, his God be with him, and let him go to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of Jehovah, the God of Israel (He is the God, which is at Jerusalem; and whosoever is left, in any place where he sojourneth [unprepared for the journey], let the men of his place help him with silver and with gold and with goods and with beasts, beside the free-will offering for the house of God, which is at Jerusalem."

Dr. Peloubet says of this time, "The exiles brought together the representatives of the divided kingdom and made one nation where there had been two, welding the twelve tribes together like iron in a furnace." God represented this union through Ezekiel (xxxvii, 15-23), by two sticks. On one was written "Judah" and on the other "The House of Israel." These sticks were joined together, "And they shall become one in thine hand." This was done in the presence of the people, to show that the exiles of Israel, carried to Babylon, B. C. 722, when Sennacherib was destroyed, were to unite with the captives of Judah. "And I will make them one nation, and one king shall be king over them all; and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all." Thus we see that there were no "ten lost tribes," for whom there has been so much seeking.

PROFITABLE DAILY TITHING.

"Daily Heavenly Manna."

This little book is having the largest circulation of any of its kind and is conceded by Christians everywhere to be the most helpful.

If Christians allow the rush and crush of selfish ambition to deprive them of their daily portion of heavenly food, they must not be surprised if they grow spiritually leaner day by day, and if the peace of God gives place in their hearts to the discontent which is growing in the world, notwithstanding the multiplication of our comforts and privileges.

Daily Heavenly Manna contains a collection of Scripture texts with appropriate quotations for every day in the year. Surely the little tithe of time daily spent in partaking of its morsels of heavenly counsel cannot fail to profit all who partake. It is published to do good—not for profit.

Your Friend's Birth Dates.

An autograph and birthday record feature in this book is a great convenience. Opposite each day of the year are blank lines upon which you can secure the autographs of your friends as they occur. This makes the book more valuable yearly. In ten years you would not sell it for ten dollars.

Besides it has a place for Birth Records, Marriage Records and Death Records. Also it has a table showing the day of the week of any date for one hundred and fifty years.

Printed on bond writing paper, blue cloth, handsome. Price, 35 cents postpaid; imitation alligator skin, gold edges, $1.00 postpaid. Order now. Bible and Tract Society, 17 Hicks Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

THINGS ALL OUGHT TO KNOW

As Christian Bible Students—The Satisfactory Proof of "Why God Permits Evil."

One of the questions which comes to nearly every thinking mind today is, "Why does God permit evil?" As we look about us in the world we observe that it is filled with sorrow and trouble, sickness and pain and every trial we could enumerate, and we cannot help wondering WHY GOD ALLOWS IT. We realize that He is almighty and that He could prevent it if He wished. We read in His Word that He is more willing to do for His children than are earthly parents for theirs, and we know how much that means; yet oftentimes, it seems that those who try to do and live right have the most trouble. This question is made very clear in a book entitled, "The Divine Plan of the Ages." Every statement is backed by Scripture, and shows that while God does not sanction evil HE HAS ALLOWED SIN AND DEATH TO REIGN FOR THESE LONG SIX THOUSAND YEARS. This and many other subjects of deep interest to all of God's people are discussed fully and in language easy of comprehension.

In English, German, Swedish, Danish, Norwegian, Italian, French, Greek, Hungarian, Spanish, Polish, Hindustani, Syriac and Turkish-Armenian in preparation.

255 pages, cloth bound, 35 cents postpaid. Address Bible and Tract Society, 17 Hicks Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Spiritism Said to Be Demonism.

A most interesting little brochure has recently come off the press setting forth with Bible proofs that the communications received by and through Spiritist Mediums is of Demon origin. The writer traces his subject through the Scriptures from the time when certain of the holy angels became disobedient. He proves from the Scriptures that these fallen spirits personate the human dead, with whose past history, spirits, though invisible, are thoroughly acquainted. He shows that they also frequently personate the Creator and the Redeemer, commanding their deceived ones to pray, do penance, etc. This, however, is merely to lead them on and to bring them more thoroughly under demonic control. Sometimes by breaking down the natural barrier, the human will, they possess their victim, and rule him more or less to his ruin—frequently sending such to the mad-house. Numerous illustrations, Scriptural and otherwise, are given. The price of the little book is but ten cents; it should be in the hands of all interested in Spiritism or who have friends interested therein. Enclose five two-cent stamps to the Bible and Tract Society, 17 Hicks street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Difficult Scriptures on Hell.

A little book selling at only ten cents, postpaid, is having a very wide circulation—running up into the millions. It contains some very startling information respecting the meaning of the word Hell. It claims to demonstrate, both from the Hebrew and the Greek of our Bible, that Hell is NOT a place of eternal torment, but merely another name for the TOMB, the GRAVE, THE STATE OF DEATH. It affects to show that man was not redeemed from a far-off place of eternal torture, but quotes the Scriptures proving that he was REDEEMED from the GRAVE at the cost of his Redeemer's LIFE and that the Scriptural Hope, both for the Church and the World, is a resurrection hope based upon the death and resurrection of Jesus. The book is certainly worth the reading. The information it furnishes is certainly valuable, far beyond its trifling cost. Order it at once from the Bible and Tract Society, 17 Hicks street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

JEFFERSON COUNTY SCHOOL.

Kentucky Out of Step With the March of Education.

If you had not driven twelve miles from big, thridding, pulsing Louisville along perfect roadways sprinkled with oil you would think you were far out in some rural community when you gaze at Rocky Hill school. It seems impossible for such a school-house to be tolerated in a county as rich and prosperous as Jefferson.

Its style of architecture is severely

simple. This idea of extreme simplicity is carried out in the veranda of red corrugated iron supported on pilin 2 by 4 studding.

If the building, the main building, lacks beauty, the old coal house is much worse. It looks as if after years of wear and tear the neighbors had felt sorry for it and had had something of a donation party. This, of course, is merely a surmise, but it is the only possible solution to the general misshape of the building. Evidently one neighbor had donated some old red roofing tin. Another neighbor, seeing the need of a door, had sent over one that had been cut "kinder whopper jawed" and would not fit anywhere—then, having no hinges, it had been tacked on anyway and left standing wide open for the weeds to grow about it.

THE COAL HOUSE "KINDER WHOPPER JAWED"

Jefferson county, with its trolley lines, its splendid roads, its wealth, should be an object lesson to the rest of the state in school and school equipment, but she is just where the others are.

The whole state is out of step with the march of education.

MOVED THE LECTURER.

Church Too Good For Him, but School-house Was Just the Place.

The man who was to give an illustrated lecture at Deer Creek sat on the steps of the Deer Creek church with his grips and gas drums about him. Seven-thirty came and went; the early summer twilight deepened while a family of serech owls discussed their affairs under their breath; 8 o'clock came and still no audience. A buggy rattled on the road below, and a voice called shrilly:

"Hello! Anybody up there?"

"Yes, and I want to get in to put my lantern in place," answered the lecturer.

"Didn't you hear that we had changed the place?" queried the voice.

"No."

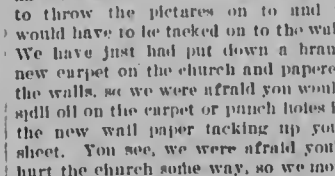

"Well, we did. You better get your things in your wagon and come down to the schoolhouse, half a mile down the road, for the folks is there waiting for you."

"How did you happen to change the place of the lecture at the last moment?"

"It was this way: You see, we knew you had to have a big light in your lantern—oil or kerosene—or other—and we knew, too, that you had to have a sheet or something big and white to throw the pictures on to and it would have to be tacked on to the wall. We have just had put down a brand new carpet on the church and papered the walls, so we were afraid you would spill oil on the carpet or punch holes in the new wall paper tacking up your sheet. You see, we were afraid you'd hurt the church some way, so we moved you down here because you couldn't hurt the schoolhouse at all."

The Boy Understood.

One of the educational committee in Louisville had pinned on his button and went out into the street for a paper. While the boy was counting out the pennies in change he caught sight of the white and blue tattoo. He smiled and got onto his tiptoes and read slowly:

"My $ for Improvement Kentucky schools."

Again he smiled and, reaching out a grimy paw, exclaimed:

"Put it there and shake. I'm with you fellers, all right."

RESOLUTIONS.

Passed at the Sunday School Convention which was held at Green Valley September 30, 1911:

We, the Committee on Resolutions beg leave to submit the following:

That we heartily approve the time and place of holding this convention.

That down deep in our hearts we think the good people of Cadmus and vicinity for their courtesy and kindness and fraternity, and for the warm feeling existing and the cordial welcome accorded the visiting brothers and sisters.

That we thank the delegation from Louisa for their presence; for their very helpful talks and the rendition of the beautiful songs.

That we tender our thanks to our worthy county president, M. S. Burns, for his wonderful plea for the redemption of the home, the salvation of the child and the advancement of the Sunday school.

That we tender our thanks to our worthy district president, M. Harmon, and our efficient secretary, J. M. Cooksey, for their zealous and untiring labors for the advancement of Sunday schools and pray the richest blessings of God upon them for the ensuing year.

That we thank the speakers for their presence and the prompt response in discussing the subjects allotted them.

That as we consider the Green Valley Convention one of the best we ever attended we pray God that much and lasting good may be accomplished and that a greater stimulus may be given to the Sunday schools in this division and that those that are not enrolled as members may become members of some good Sunday school and give their talents that God has given them in the upbuilding of His cause here on earth.

That we thank Mrs. Nash for her very interesting talk which shows what women can do in Sunday Schools.

POLITICAL MATTERS.

Interesting Reading About the Kentucky Campaign.

Statement From Vansant.

State Campaign Chairman Rufus Vansant and Secretary Robert G. Phillips have inaugurated a month's work which they say will smother to smithereens all records for campaign work ever done by either political party in Kentucky. They say that by the time the last day of October rolls round it will be patent even to Republicans that the Democratic state ticket, headed by Ollie M. James for United States Senator and Jarius B. McCreary for Governor, is going to sweep the state, and to take charge again of the state government at Frankfort.

State Chairman Vansant says that the Democrats from every part of the commonwealth are reporting daily to the state headquarters the greatest interest and enthusiasm for the ticket. He says that there is a keen rivalry among the districts and among the counties as to which one can increase its Democratic majority the most. Secretary Phillips says that the Democrats are going to make the month of October notable in the political annals of this state. He says the working force at headquarters will be doubled and that more Democratic speakers will be on the stump than ever before in any campaign for state offices.

Among the distinguished speakers who are to appear to the Democrats of Kentucky to elect their state ticket are Governor J. H. Johnson, of Ohio; Speaker Champ Clark, of Missouri; Representative W. A. Cullip, of Indiana; Representative Oscar W. Underwood, of Alabama; Representative Thomas Heflin, of Alabama; United States Senator John W. Kern, of Indiana, and a long list of others.

A big Democratic rally was held in Louisville and was addressed by Governor McCreary, the gubernatorial nominee; Edward J. McDermott, the Democratic nominee for Lieutenant Governor, Ollie M. James, and Representative A. O. Stanley, of the Second District. Mayor William O. Head, of Louisville, presided at the meeting and introduced the speakers and made an address which shows to Democrats everywhere that the Chief Executive of Louisville is taking the keenest interest in the success of Democracy.

On October 19 the Democrats are expected to have another big rally and to hold at various points in the state.

Representative James, who has just returned from a speaking trip through the mountains, says he never saw as much enthusiasm for a Democratic state ticket as he has seen in Kentucky. "When Governor Beckham was the nominee of the Democrats for Governor in 1903 I accompanied him on a campaign trip through the mountains. It will be recalled that in that year Governor Beckham's majority was about 30,000. I have just returned from a trip through the same country, and I know I am not mistaken when I say that the crowds I addressed this time were much larger and the enthusiasm was greater than it was in 1903, and in that year there was the greatest enthusiasm over Governor Beckham's candidacy. All his meetings in that campaign were largely attended, and in the more remote sections of the state, where he was not as well known as he is today, there was the greatest interest in him, and great curiosity on the part of the voters to see and to hear the youthful nominee of the Democrats for Governor. I was unaccompanied on the trip which I have just completed, and there is no doubt in my mind but that the Democrats are going to have a tremendous majority in the election this fall."

James Making a Winning Fight.

All doubt of Democratic success can be dispelled by reading the newspaper reports of Ollie James' triumphant journey through the State. Wherever he has gone immense crowds have greeted him, and the enthusiasm is greater than has been aroused in years in any political campaign. This is not entirely due to Mr. James' magnetic personality, although popular with all classes. It is caused by the desire of the Democrats to show by their presence that they are going to send to the United States Senate a man who will vote exactly opposite to Senator Bradley. They recognize that one vote in the Senate may mean the control of that body, so closely are the parties divided. It was not necessary for the Democratic speakers to raise national issues in this fight. The voters themselves are asking questions about the tariff and the trusts and they have made this great issue a feature of the campaign. All the efforts of Judge O'Rear to confine this contest to State matters have only convinced them that the Republican party wants to change the subject, because it cannot face the people on its record in Congress and in the White House.

The legislators to be chosen in November will not only elect a Senator next January, but nineteen of the State Senators will hold over for two years and will vote for Bradley's successor in 1914. Kentucky has never engaged in a more far-reaching contest. It concerns a Governorship and all the State offices; two United States Senatorships; and will have an influence on the election of a President next year. That is why Champ Clark, Speaker of the House, Oscar Underwood, the Floor Leader, Governor Marshall of Indiana, William J. Bryan, and all the great national figures are lending their support to the Kentucky Democrats. They know how vital it is to success in the nation that Kentucky should vote right this year.

Will the Preachers be Caught?

The Republicans are at their same old tricks, trying to play upon the prejudices of the preachers of the gospel. They are getting the names of each preacher in the State and are sending him a special class of literature, in order to prejudice him against the Democratic party on the whiskey question in order to get him to vote for O'Rear, and also in order to get each one of them to try to influence his members to vote the Republican ticket. It is to be hoped these gentlemen will not again be caught by the deceptive song of the Republicans. Four years ago hundreds of ministers bolted their ticket, thinking they were doing God's service and believing they were voting for a man and a party who would vote for and secure the extensions of the county unit bill when in fact they were caught in the whiskey drag-net of the Republicans and were influenced and led to do the very thing they did not want to do. —Mayfield Messenger.

This campaign may seem all fun and frolic to Judge O'Rear, who is striving to surpass Mark Twain and Bill Nye with his witticisms, but we can assure him that the voters regard this election as a serious question in which not only a Governor, a Senator, and all State officers are to be chosen, but a potent influence is to be exerted as well upon the Presidential contest in 1912.

A few days ago, L. W. Bethurum, Republican candidate for Auditor, spoke at Paintsville. The Louisville Herald said he was heard by a splendid, representative and enthusiastic audience. There were just 81 people there. Divide the Republican reports of vast audiences in this campaign by six, if you want a fair estimate of the crowds their speakers are drawing.

When Judge O'Rear thought he was going to put the Democrats on the defensive and bays them on the run, he reckoned without that valiant leader of the embattled hosts, Governor McCreary. The Democratic nominee has not retreated an inch; nor will he. His cause is just; his opportunity great; the occasion ideal, and he will carry the battle into the thickest of the fight. Never in his long career has he shown greater vigor. His example makes every member of the rank and file step faster and fight harder.

Governor Willson's Republican Board of Equalization has in the last two years, added more than $1,380,000.00 to the burden of the people's taxes. The platform upon which Judge O'Rear is running underscores every act of Willson's administration, so, of course, this spoliation of the property of the taxpayers is approved.

To date Governor Willson has only been absent 269 days from his post of duty. He has drawn from the treasury for that period of absence $4,786.20, his salary being $17.60 per day, and for doing his work Lieutenant-Governor Cox has drawn the same amount. This is the wastefulness and neglect which Judge O'Rear's platform tells the voters is altogether praise-worthy.

McChesney at Carrollton.

Carrollton, Ky., Oct. 9.—Former Secretary of State H. V. McChesney spoke to a good crowd here today in the interest of the Democratic ticket. He devoted most of his address to State issues. He said in part:

"The wearer of a 'halo' is ordinarily supposed to be very circumspect in his behavior, and especially careful as to his spoken words. This is necessary in order that the halo may remain spotless. This being true, it grieves us to call attention to the failure of Kentucky's only halo owner to live up to the plans and specifications.

But let us get down to our motto. Senator Bradley, who has discarded his slouch hat for the Phoenix Hill 'halo' doesn't show any sign of improvement in his manner of juggling figures and concealing the truth in his campaign speeches. In his Ashland speech he told his hearers that the Willson administration has paid out for education, in round numbers, $3,783,000 more than the last Beckham administration, and added that if this had not been done the State would now be $2,500,000 out of debt.

That statement looked like a pretty good showing for this Republican, but the trouble about it is that the Senator was so busy keeping his halo on straight that he entirely forgot to mention the other side of the account. Perfectly willing to tell his audience that the Willson administration has paid out $3,785,000 more than Beckham's administration, he neglected to tell them that the Willson administration has received into the treasury $4,828,000 more than the preceding administration, with which to pay this $3,785,000 excess for education. The Senator left his audience to find this out the best way they could. Of course, the wearer of a halo wouldn't make a false statement, and we do not mean to intimate that the gentleman in question has done so; the truth to allow his hearers to deceive themselves, so to speak.

O'Rear is going to destroy 'machines' and have all tickets nominated by primary—and he starts the fight by nominating himself and his ticket in a 'steam-roller' convention. He is going to put the whiskey interests out of politics—and he inaugurates the movement by selecting the president of the Distillers' Association as treasurer of his campaign fund. He is going to establish a non-partisan judiciary—and sets the first example by holding onto his seat in the Court of Appeals, before which thousands of litigants and hundreds of lawyers have cases pending, while making a race for a political office. He is going to have United States Senators elected by popular vote—and he does not allow even his State convention to name the Republican candidate for the Senate. In view of these glaring inconsistencies, the honorable position which Judge O'Rear holds is all that has prevented some wicked Democrat or thoughtless Republican, from suggesting that, along with his other varied accomplishments, he is a demagogue of the purest ray serene. But, of course, no one will say this about a Judge of our court of last resort, and particularly one who esteems his position so highly that he holds on to it, and the $415 per, even when he is making no effort to earn a dollar of the compensation provided.

The man who would institute great reforms must approach the task with clean hands; and I submit that the Republican candidate for Governor, carrying this huge bundle of inconsistencies, does not meet the specifications. Kentucky may have had some other public men in her history who thought they were the only perfect men in the Commonwealth, but Judge O'Rear is the first one who has been willing to admit it. Now, when one of these 'better-than-his-party' and 'holier-than-thou' fellows starts out to advertise himself the public invariably begins to investigate him pretty closely; and it usually pays to do so. I have been making rather a careful investigation of the grounds upon which the distinguished but modest Republican candidate for Governor bases his claim to perfection, and I am going to give you in what he called tabloid form, the results of this investigation; it holds down to about this:

He is going to help the inuring man, elevate the morals of the people, make corruption obsolete, purify politics, destroy machines and have all tickets nominated by primary, put the whiskey interests out of politics, establish a non-partisan judiciary, have United States Senators elected by popular vote, and too after any other little matter that may demand his attention time to time.

"This is a pretty big job the Judge has cut out for himself, but the size of it isn't half so remarkable as the manner in which he is starting out to accomplish these reforms, I shall take them up in the orders have named them. He is going to help the lahering man—and he begins by endorsing Taft's veto of the farmers and laborers' free list bill. He is going to elevate the morals of the people—and he starts the good work by having Caleb Powers help write his platform. He is going to make corruption obsolete—and he starts the crusade by endorsing Bradley's election to the Senate. He is going to purify politics—and selects Langley, the friend of the tariff barons, as his campaign manager. All of which leads to the conclusion that the wearing of a halo, even though it may have been manufactured by a county unit man in a beer garden, does not always make the wearer perfect.

Democratic Victory.

Chairman R. H. Vansant of the Democratic Campaign Committee, has issued a statement predicting Democratic success. This is 'not the claim of a rainbow-chaser who is fooling both himself and his party, but is the frank opinion of a practical man, who is in touch with every county in the State, and who can speak authoritatively of the work that is being done. The organization is the best that has been made in Kentucky in many years. It not only comprises old and new leaders, but goes into every precinct and enlists the support of the rank and file, which, after all, determines whether victory or defeat shall be the portion of any party.

Every man who has attended the Democratic meetings, bears testimony to the accuracy of Chairman Vansant's prediction. The great crowds, the unbridled enthusiasm, and the hearty welcome given Democratic candidates and speakers recall the old days in Kentucky, when the State won forty thousand Democratic without an effort. It only remains for the Democrats to go to the polls to place Kentucky where it belongs, back in the list of Democratic States, never again to stray away from the old faith and the old traditions.

KENTUCKY NEIGHBORS.

Katie Flanagan, 12, and her grandfather, 50, charged with moonshining, were arrested in Letcher county a few days ago by Deputy Sheriff John D. W. Collins and taken to Whitesburg for a hearing.

At the Democratic convention at Sandy Hook, September 22, Mr. Edward King of Carter county, was nominated for representatives of the 10th Legislative District, and at the Democratic Convention at Owensville Wednesday, N. R. Coburn, of Olive Hill, was nominated for Senator of the Thirty-fifth Senatorial District. These are two of Carter's most upright and honest citizens and the county will do her share in electing them to the high positions to which they aspire.

MRS. MCGILL BROKE DOWN

Gives the Real Facts In Regard to Her Case and Tells How She Suffered.

Jonesboro, Ark.—"I suffered a complete break down in health, some time ago," writes Mrs. A. McGill, from this place. "I was very weak and could not do any work. I tried different remedies, but they did me no good. One day, I got a bottle of Cardui. It did me so much good, I was surprised, and took some more.

Before I took Cardui, I had headache and backache, and sometimes I would cry for hours. Now I am over all that, and can do all kinds of housework. I think it is the greatest medicine on earth."

In the past fifty years, thousands of ladies have written, like Mrs. McGill, to tell of the benefit received from Cardui.

Such testimony, from earnest women, surely indicates the great value of this tonic remedy, for diseases peculiar to women. Are you a sufferer? Yes? Cardui is the medicine you need. We urge you to try it.

A COLT SHOW.

On last Saturday at Glenwood, this county, on the farm of Taylor brothers, a colt show was held. It included only the colts sired by their fine stallion, Bernardo Chief. The show was quite a success, despite the heavy rain.

This is the only registered stallion in the county. His number is 4308. He was sired by Sterling Chief No. 2079, he by Dan Wilkie Gay No. 6841. Bernardo Chief is owned by Taylor brothers.

The turnout was wonderful for a three year old.

Below Chief, owned by Wm. Hel-low, of Denton, took first prize. This is a fine chestnut sorrel with star and snip much resembling the sire. Daisy Chief, owned by Wm. Cooksey, took second prize, and Midge Chief, owned by W. K. Queen, received third prize.

The judges were J. H. Woods, of Glenwood; Bob Towler, of Ves-sie, and J. C. Sparks, of Glenwood. We are glad the Taylor brothers are doing so much for the upbuilding of the horse breeding industry of our county and state, which is famed for good horses. They hope to have a better show next year. The horse of which is now in fine condition and we hope to have a better day, so all the people can attend. We are sure it will be of interest and inspire them to aid in upbuilding this business.

REV. J. W. CRITES.

The Rev. J. W. Crites, who is now the pastor of the M. E. Church South, succeeding the Rev. W. L. Held, preached his first sermon to his new charge on last Sunday morning. In the language of Mr. Crites it was a "splendid and-ono" which heard the initial sermon of this pastoral year, the auditorium being entirely full, and ended with Mr. Crites preaching upon the theme "The World's Only Hope," choosing as a foundation for his discourse the words of Jesus as recorded in John 14: "I am the way, the truth, the life," and the vital subject was so treated and handled by Mr. Crites that he held the attention of his intelligent audience from the beginning of his sermon to its close. Mr. Crites said it was his desire to put Jesus before his congregation, and the sermon of the morning, taken in connection with his evening discourse, most satisfactorily gratified his wish.

"We Would See Jesus." These words expressing the desire of some Greeks were the basis of the evening sermon on "Seeing Jesus." Again the congregation was a large and intelligent one, and again Mr. Crites manifested his ability as a preacher. Logic, earnest sincerity, devotion to his high calling, earnestness, eloquence—all these admirable qualities pervaded both discourses, giving earnest for the work of the coming year.

Mr. Crites is a genial, pleasant gentleman. He and his wife and four children are comfortably domiciled in the parsonage, where, on Monday evening last, they were heavily and vigorously "pounded" by friends. Louisa has been made famous by the hospitality of its people, and on this occasion it was again manifested in a marked degree. The high cost of living need not worry Mr. Crites for some time, at least. Forty 2-pound packages of sugar, real sugar, too—almost as much coffee, enough flour in sacks to make a barrel, potatoes, apples, chickens and many other necessities in profusion testified in a fitting way to the cordial good feeling of the flock to their shepherd.

S. S. CONVENTION.

The Bear Creek and Fallsburg district Sunday School Convention was held Sept. 30 at Buchanan Chapel, presided over by Charles Miller, president. Quite a number of able speakers were present, among them were Rev. Hanford, Rev. Copley, Rev. French Hill, Ex-County President R. T. Burns and others. Each speaker did justice to his subject and was highly appreciated. The music was fine. It had the old time ring. The best of order prevailed. The Convention was made up of the very best people of the neighborhood. A large proportion were religious people. The afternoon session was as good or better than the forenoon. Dinner was served at the grounds. There was plenty for all and of the best in the land. The closing of the Convention was beyond description. It was simply sublime. The old veterans of the Cross came forward and formed a line near the pulpit.

The people sang that good old song, "God be with us till we meet again," and all engaged in old time hand shake. Some of them were like David of old. They could not keep still, but broke forth in shouts of praise. Uncle Roll Burns declared the Convention was among the best he had ever attended. A large number present heartily agreed with him.

CLOSED A FINE MEETING.

Standard, W. Va., Oct. 8.—Rev. Roscoe Murray just closed a ten days revival meeting at this place. He began on Sept. 29, and closed the meeting on Oct. 8, 1911. Bro. Murray contrasted sin and righteousness so forcibly that there were about forty contrite hearts forsoke their sins and turn to the Lord.

After a most excellent sermon on Sunday, Oct. 8, six were baptized shortly after which he had to leave us. The distance he had to go, to make connection with the train, being about six miles we secured a wagon and a party of us took him to the train having a very enjoyable hayride.

We certainly wish Bro. Murray a safe journey home and a continuation of God's blessing in his work.—B. W. Rhodes.

LAWRENCE COUNTY HALL.

August Term, Lawrence Circuit Court, 19th Day, 18th Day of Sept. 1911.

Louisa, Ky., Sept. 18, 1911.

This being the last day of the August Term, 1911, of the Lawrence Circuit Court, W. O. the Attorneys of said Bar desire to and do hereby make the following statements, to-wit: We deplore the cause of the absence of our regular Circuit Judge, Honorable J. B. Hannan who has so faithfully and satisfactorily presided over our court from the time he was elected and commissioned up to and including the last term. We were all pained of heart by his severe illness, and glad to hear that is now in fair way of recovery and hope and pray he may speedily be restored to his former health and strength.

We hereby tender thanks to Honorable A. J. Kirk, and Honorable D. W. Gardner for the kind, courteous, yet firm and dignified and satisfactory manner in which they have presided over this term of our court. We request that this statement of ours be spread upon the record of this, the last day of this term and that a copy of same be sent to Honorable J. B. Hannan at Sandy Hook, Ky.; a copy to Honorable A. J. Kirk, at Pikeville, Ky.; a copy to Honorable D. W. Gardner at Salyersville, Ky.

PASSING OF GREEN SEAGRAVES.

The News regrets to hear of the death of Mr. Green Seagraves, a prominent citizen and lawyer of Johnson county. It occurred on Monday last at his home in White-house, burial taking place on Tuesday afternoon. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. H. B. Huette, of this city. The cause of death was infirmities of age. Had he lived a month or so longer Mr. Seagraves would have been 70 years old. He left a widow seven children, 4 of whom were born by a former wife. He was a consistent and useful member of the Southern Methodist Church, and died as he had lived for many years, in the wellfounded hope of a life of happiness beyond the grave. Mr. Seagraves was a good lawyer, versed in its many phases, and had been called several times to act as a special judge of the circuit court. He was fond of the Sunday school, seemingly never tired of doing all he could to promote the interests of the work. He will be greatly missed by the people among whom he lived.

Mrs. Sarah A. Salmons is contemplating a visit to see her brother, Luce Vinson, who has a job with some concrete building work in Foster, Ky., some distance this side of Cincinnati.

This place was overflowing with drummers Monday.

MOUNTAIN BOY.

UNIT FOR THE BUSINESS.

The trial of J. E. Cribbs, for unlawfully whipping Paton Wed-dington, a small pupil, while teaching at the Henaker academy at Coal Run, Prof. Cribbs was fined seventy dollars and costs. Mr. Cribbs is now attending college at his home at Grove City, Pa. He is very rash and impetuous when his temper is aroused, but is otherwise a good teacher. This may be the means of teaching him a much needed lesson.—Pike cor, Ashland Independent.

The News was informed by a gentleman who had seen the child upon whom the "Prof." had vented his "rash and impetuous" temper. He was small and delicate, and the instrument used in the assault was like an ox road in size. The offense was a trifling one. "Rash and impetuous" men have no business in the schoolroom as teachers. They would do well to take a few lessons themselves.

"YALLER ROOT" VS. "SANG."

Gluseng has long been one of the most valuable herbs known to this country, but it appears that it will have to take a second place in the market in a short time. Yellow root, a very common plant which grows abundantly in this section promises to surpass "sang" in price before next season. An exchange says:

While "sang" was being sold here at five and six dollars a pound, yellow root was selling fifteen to twenty cents a pound. Today it is worth $5.50 a pound with a steady upward tendency. Fluid extract of yellow root is selling for something like $9 a pint and will go higher. Yellow root is one of the important ingredients of proprietary medicine and its consumption for the last two or three years has been so great that the market supply is inadequate to fill the demand.
